Re: Update on EGM of the shareholders of Federated Hermes Multi-Strategy Credit Fund

4 March 2024

Dear Shareholder

We are writing to you as a shareholder in the Federated Hermes Multi-Strategy Credit Fund (the “Fund”) to notify you of the results of the extraordinary general meeting (“EGM”) held on 1 March 2024 at which Shareholders were asked to approve the proposed merger of the Fund into the Federated Hermes Unconstrained Credit Fund, a sub-fund of the Company (the “Merger”). Please note that Shareholders voted to approve the resolutions presented at the EGM and to approve the Merger. The effective date of the Merger will be 23 May 2024 (“Effective Date”).

Action to be taken

On the Effective Date, Shareholders in the Fund will be issued New Shares in the Federated Hermes Unconstrained Credit Fund without any further action required on their part. Shareholders who do not wish to take part in the Merger must request the repurchase of their Existing Shares in the Fund prior to the latest time for requesting such a repurchase being 9:30 a.m. (Irish time) on 22 May 2024. Otherwise, such Existing Shares will automatically form part of the Merger and be replaced with New Shares.

All capitalised terms used in this letter and not defined herein shall have the meanings given to them in the circular issued to Shareholders of the Fund dated 8 February 2024.

Should you have any questions or concerns relating to the matters detailed above, you should contact your sales representative, professional advisor or the Company.

Yours faithfully

Director
For and on behalf of
Federated Hermes Investment Funds plc
