Federated Hermes Absolute Return Credit Fund	This Fund, through its ESG and stewardship integration approach, promotes environmental and/or social characteristics, but does not have as its objective sustainable investment.	N/A	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Investment Manager will undertake an assessment of the material Environmental, Social and Governance (“ESG”) qualities of the issuer including; environmental items (such as the impact on natural resources), social issues (such as human rights) and governance (being the way in which the company is run). The Investment Manager assesses the material ESG characteristics of a company by considering a variety of sources including; EOS at Federated Hermes; third party providers, where available, such as ISS, CDP, MSCI, Sustainalytics and Trucost amongst others; and companies’ own Disclosures. The Investment Manager assigns an ESG score to each country and company in the portfolio on a scale of 1 to 5, where companies with a score of 5 are generally excluded from the investment universe. The Investment Manager may invest in companies with poor ESG scores where the company has shown a desire to improve their ESG behaviours and can demonstrate good corporate governance practices and/or a willingness to engage in issues if they arise. The Investment Manager integrates the insights from EOS at Federated Hermes, the dedicated stewardship team, with the ultimate aim to reduce underperformance from poor ESG behaviours. EOS encourages companies to improve their ESG practices and act responsibly and thereby create sustainable wealth. 	Article 8

¹ The categorisation of each Fund as Article 8 or Article 9, as applicable, has been determined by reference to the requirements of Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 November 2019 on sustainability-related disclosures in the financial services sector (“SFDR”). The categorisation of each Fund will be reviewed and, if required, amended by reference to the Regulatory Technical Standards to SFDR when effective.

Federated Hermes Impact Opportunities Equity Fund	The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve long-term capital appreciation by investing in companies which will benefit from meeting the world's environmental and social challenges.	MSCI All Country World Investable Market Index The benchmark is not aligned to the Fund's sustainable investment objective.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The Investment Manager will seek to identify and invest in companies which stand to benefit the development of solutions to such societal challenges as water shortages, environmental degradation, waste management, the search for sustainable energy sources, healthcare needs, aging populations, demographic change and the achievement of financial inclusion and global equality. ● The analysis of companies is based on proven economic factors as well as on impact opportunity and sustainability characteristics. An example of the impact opportunity would be a company which invests in an innovative new solution to such issues as water shortages or waste management will have a significant "first mover" advantage and consequential potential for significant returns if it successfully develops and markets such solution(s). ● The Investment Manager will also have regard to financial sustainability, and long-term value creation when evaluating companies for investment. The Investment Manager bases its sustainable investment strategy on the belief that a company can achieve impact in three ways: (i) providing innovative new products; (ii) broadening access of existing products through preferential pricing or supplying to places where it was not supplied before; or (iii) operating in a way that by itself creates substantial benefits, for example through the company's treatment of employees and the environment. ● The Investment Manager will undertake an assessment of the material Environmental, Social and Governance ("ESG") qualities of the company including; environmental items (such as the impact on natural resources), social issues (such as human rights) and governance (being the way in which the company is run). ● The Investment Manager assesses the material ESG characteristics of a company by considering a variety of sources including EOS at Federated Hermes and third party providers such as ISS, CDP, MSCI, Sustainalytics and Trucost amongst others; and companies' own Disclosures. ● The Investment Manager may invest in companies with poor ESG ratings where the company has shown a desire to improve their ESG behaviours have good governance and meet the impact and sustainability characteristics outlined above. ● The Investment Manager integrates the insights from EOS at Federated Hermes, the dedicated stewardship team, with the ultimate aim to reduce underperformance from poor ESG behaviours. Federated Hermes Sustainable Global Equity Fund	The investment objectives of the Fund are to: (i) achieve capital growth over a rolling five year period; and (ii) have a reduced environmental footprint compared to the Index.	MSCI All Country World Index The benchmark is not aligned to the Fund's sustainable investment objective.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The Fund aims to reduce the environmental footprint in comparison to the Index (as defined below) and this is measured (using available third party data relating to the carbon, water and waste metrics detailed below) by comparing the following characteristics of the companies in respect of which the Fund holds equity with the Index: (i) total carbon emissions normalised by the market value of the portfolio, expressed in tons CO2 per $ million invested; (ii) the total waste (landfill, nuclear and incinerated) for a portfolio normalised by the market value of the portfolio, tonnes per $ million invested; and (iii) the total water used (cooling, processed and purchased) normalised by the market value of the portfolio, m³ per $ million invested. ● The Investment Manager targets companies identified as 'sustainable leaders' in order to capture the growth of such companies. Our definition of a 'sustainable leader' is predicated on three primary considerations. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Firstly, the business model, considering how suppliers, buyers, market entrants, substitute products and competitor rivalry affect the profitability of a company. – Secondly, considering how well companies manage environmental, social and governance ("ESG") factors, (for example including how companies limit their emissions, how they ensure product safety, how they manage diversity in the workforce and how the board is structured). The Investment Manager uses a proprietary framework to consider the material ESG risks and opportunities for each company, and use the breadth and depth of our engagement data to put our analysis in context. As a result of the consideration of ESG factors, the Fund's weighted average ESG rating will always be better than the weighted ESG rating of the Index after eliminating the worst 20% of securities. – Thirdly, consideration is seeking to understand the broader benefit or cost of each company. As well as looking at companies which do no significant harm, the Investment Manager also looks beyond this and, where appropriate, the portfolio will actively target those companies seeking to improve their effect on people and the planet through their products or services. ● The Investment Manager assesses the financially material ESG characteristics of a company by considering a variety of sources including; EOS at Federated Hermes; third party providers, where available, such as ISS, CDP, MSCI, Sustainalytics and Trucost amongst others; and companies' own Disclosures. ● The Investment Manager integrates the insights from EOS at Federated Hermes, the dedicated stewardship team, with the ultimate aim to reduce underperformance from poor ESG behaviours.
